Haysville Police Department Promotes Officers

Haysville, KS – Promotions of five Haysville Police Department Officers was announced at the Haysville City Council Meeting on April 14, 2008, where Mayor Bruce Armstrong presented the officers with new badges.

Sergeant Robert Crites and Sergeant Kevin Sexton were both promoted to Lieutenant. Crites began his law enforcement career with the Haysville Police Department in December of 1996. Sexton began his law enforcement career with the Sedgwick County Sheriff's Department in 1996 and started work with the Haysville Police Department in February of 1999.

Three Master Police Officers were promoted to the rank of Sergeant. Master Police Officer Jason Whipple began his law enforcement career with the Towanda Kansas Police Department in 1996 and joined the Haysville Police Department in January of 1999. Master Police Officer Rene LaMarche started for the Sedgwick County Sheriff's Department in 1998 and began work with the Haysville Police Department in March of 1999. Master Police Officer Brian Daily began his law enforcement career with the United States Air Force in 1990 and joined the Haysville Police Department in January of 2006.

These officers were promoted following intensive testing and interviews. Chief Mike McElroy was on hand to also offer his congratulations.
