The growing Haysville community is a great market to build your next retail/restaurant!

Haysville is growing!

The Haysville community would be ideal for your next retail space/restaurant!

We are a growing suburb of Wichita, Kansas, along Wichita's south edge and directly off Turnpike Exit 39.

We are growing! We currently have two housing developments that are still building, two that are about to begin, and one Assisted Living Center that will begin construction this year.

Haysville has all the advantages of being a small-town community with the benefit of social and economic integration with a metropolitan city and its surrounding suburbs. Our residents have also expressed a desire for more retail development.

We are excited to welcome you into our growing city!

Haysville has incentives to assist new businesses

Haysville is actively recruiting retail and restaurants to our growing city.

We currently have restaurant and coffee house incentives based on residential requests. Additional information and applications can be found in the incentives links on the business development website.

Because of our growth, the Haysville Economic Development office would be happy to discuss further incentives if you plan a new build in city limits.

We also have additional resources for qualified businesses to help start your business.

The Haysville Economic Development Office wants to help you be successful!

Based on ESRI 2020 Census Block Data, the five-mile trade area population is 115,140, and the ten-mile trade area population is 390,380.

Community Attractions

Haysville has excellent community events and attractions that bring people from outside our local community throughout the year, adding to business revenue.

- Two highly attended festivals
- Great community events
- A four-million-dollar activity center with an outdoor pool,
- Great parks and paths that include disc golf and a dog park,
- Wichita State University satellite campus
- Fun little shops and places to eat
- Historical buildings, and
- A Farmers Market

Schools

We have an excellent school system that attracts families outside city limits. Campus High School also has an Olympic-sized pool that hosts swimming competitions from outside communities bringing in additional business revenue.
