City of Haysville Announces New Economic Development Director

HAYSVILLE, Kansas (August 22, 2013) - The City of Haysville has named James Oltman as its Economic Development Director. Oltman will begin his duties on September 3, 2013.

Oltman comes to Haysville from north central Kansas where he has been the Executive Director of the Lincoln County Economic Development Foundation for the last year. He studied at Peru State College in Peru Nebraska, where he received Bachelors of Science Degrees in both Business Management and Business Marketing. He has also earned his Masters of Science Degree in Organizational Management with a focus in Entrepreneurial and Economic Development.

"I am excited about the opportunity the City of Haysville has presented me. In the short time I have been there I can see that not only does the community already have a lot of good things going for it, it also has enormous potential to continue to build into a bigger and more vibrant community," says Oltman. "I can't wait to jump in head first and see what kind of things we can start to accomplish together."
