Press Release Update:

Update to the officer involved shooting from August 19, 2014.

On Tuesday morning, at approximately 10:47 a.m., three Haysville Police Officers responded to a domestic violence call at Village Green Apartments, 401 Sarah Lane, in Haysville. Officers arrived on scene to discover the suspect, Chad Leichardt, a 40 year old white male, barricaded in a bedroom in an apartment, physically restraining the victim, an adult female. Mr. Leichardt was in possession of a knife and the victim was bleeding from what appeared to be knife wounds inflicted by Mr. Leichardt. Officers were unable to get Mr. Leichardt to drop the knife or release the victim when repeatedly ordered to do so, and he continued to threaten the victim and the officers with his weapon. Officers fired one round striking Mr. Leichardt. Mr. Leichardt was pronounced dead at the scene.

The victim in the case was treated and released from the hospital, but her name and the names of the officers involved are not being released pending the outcome of the investigation.

A local record check revealed at least two cases of domestic violence between the two in Haysville previously.

Per policy, the officers involved are on paid administrative leave pending the investigation.
