Spring is in Full Swing in Haysville

Haysville, KS (April 22, 2014) Spring is a busy time of year in Haysville! Listed below are some of the events taking place in the next few weeks. All of these, and more, can be found on the community event calendar located at www.hellohaysville.com.

This Saturday, April 26th, the Haysville Community Library is offering a free metal detecting class, no detector required! Space is limited, so call (316) 218-3488 to claim a spot.

Sunday, April 27th is the 5th annual Midwest Bicycle Swap Meet, located at the Haysville Hometown Market in the Historic District. Open to the public, this free, all day event features bikes, bike accessories, clothing, antiques and more!

Thursday, May 1st will be a great day to pack a picnic lunch and head to Riggs Park, because the splash pad opens for the first time this year. Open from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., the splash pad is a great place to beat the heat!

On Saturday, May 3rd from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., the Haysville PRIDE Committee is hosting a free car seat safety check in the parking lot of the City Building, located at 200 W. Grand. Be sure to bring the child whose seat is being fitted!

Arbor Day is also on May 3rd. To celebrate, the City of Haysville will be planting a tree in the Historic District at 9:00 a.m. We invite everyone to attend.

On Saturday, May 10th, the Haysville Masonic Lodge will have their monthly community breakfast from 7:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Campus High School's Project Graduation will be having a pancake feed in the Campus commons from 7:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Both organizations do great work in the community, so deciding which breakfast to attend could be difficult! Whichever you decide, make sure to stop by Riggs Park for National Kids to Parks Day, which features a 1.5 mile family fun run/walk beginning at 9:30 a.m. and a petting zoo from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. provided by Four Points Ranch.

On May 16th and 17th, Sedgwick County will have a Master Gardeners' Garden Tour. One of the featured stops will be in Haysville, at 309 Park Drive. For more info, contact the Sedgwick County Extension Office at 660-0138.

Saturday, May 24th is opening day for the Dewey Gunzelman Memorial Swimming Pool. Pool passes for individuals and families are currently on sale at the Haysville Activity Center. Call 529-5922 for more information.

On May 31st, the Haysville Aviators will play their first home game against the Hutchinson Monarchs at Plagens-Carpenter Park at 7:00 p.m. Home games are free to the public!

Saturday, June 7th is opening day of the Haysville Hometown Market, which is open from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. every Saturday until September. The Father/Son Campout is also on June 7th and cost $25 per pair. Contact the HAC at 529-5922 to register. Riggs Park will be home to Ballet in the Park at 7:00 p.m. and features "Love's Labours Lost." Be sure to bring a lawn chair!

Finally, Haysville's PRIDE Committee will have their city-wide clean-up days on June 7th (for citizens on the west side of town) and June 14th (for citizens on the east side of town). Permits can be purchased at the Haysville Community Library. With the help of Best Value Services, volunteers from the community pick up whatever is set at the curb for disposal.
